About

Prosecco, Italy's famous sparkling wine, hails from the Veneto region. Unlike Champagne, Prosecco is produced using the Charmat method in which a secondary fermentation takes place in stainless steel tanks. This process makes Prosecco an incredible joyful wine to drink young and fresh.

Filipetti was founded in 1922 and is produced by Perlino, a respected business with a history dating back more than 100 years. Their guiding principle is quality in everything they do, from the vineyards to the winery and their finished packaging.

Tasting Notes

Crisp with fruity notes and hints of rose petals and strawberries. This delightful Prosecco is well-balanced soft and full with good length. Extra dry.

Ideal as an aperitif or with finger food, canapes, and light seafood dishes.
