Producer Summary: Bodegas Franco-Españolas was founded by Frederick Anglade Saurat, a native of Bordeaux, in 1890, at a time when the French came to the region to replace their vineyards devastated by phylloxera. In 1920, fifteen years after Anglade's death, the French sold their shares and the winery became wholly Spanish. Borja Eguizábal assumed management in 2016, giving way to the third generation of the Eguizábal family as owners of the winery. Its privileged location, on the banks of the Ebro River, has made Bodegas Franco-Españolas a witness to the history of Logroño. In the hands of the Eguizábal Family since 1984, it is currently immersed in new projects and is a benchmark among the leisure and cultural offer of La Rioja.

Short Tasting Note: Intensely fruity aromas characteristic of the Tempranillo grape. Bursting with flavours of red fruit with hints of very soft wood and spice.

Long Tasting Note: Deep purple in colour with brilliant ruby tones. Elegant on the nose, with intensely fruity aromas characteristic of the Tempranillo grape. Bursting with flavours of red fruit with hints of very soft wood and spice.
