Background Product Information:

In the Adnams Countries Range, you will find the familiar flavours of wines you know and love, and those you've really got to try. We've searched the world for quality examples of each style, so you can grab a bottle of your go-to or find the perfect introduction.

The roots of indigenous Italian grapes are deeply entwined with local culture and tradition. Montepulciano, from the dramatic region of Abruzzo, between the Apennines and the coast, displays all the warmth of Italy. This classic, plum-scented Italian red has well-rounded flavours of blackberries and cherries with a soft hint of spice. Pop a homemade pizza or lasagne in the oven and drift off to the Adriatic.

Allergen & Dietary Information:

Contains sulphites. This product is suitable for vegans and vegetarians.
