Short Tasting Note: A zesty, floral wine, full of grapefruit and peach fruit flavours with mineral notes on the long finish.

Long Tasting Note: A zesty, floral wine, full of grapefruit and peach fruit flavours with mineral notes on the long finish. The grapes were grown in the Leyda Valley estate, which is close to the Pacific Ocean which has cool salty sea breezes and long ripening periods which make it an ideal place for Sauvignon Blanc, yielding wines with crisp and lean acidity. This wine suits fresh seafood, light chicken dishes and soft cheeses.

Press Recommendations: "Right up there with Chile's best value Sauvignon Blancs, and all the more commendable because of the volumes involved, this Leyda white is made up of 30 different lots. Modern, bright and grapefruity with lime and lemongrass flavours." - Tim Atkin MW (Timatkin.com, October 2020). "Lemon zest, white peaches and a whiff of green leaves. Tart green fruit and nectarines on the palate, driven by a bright streak of acidity. Fresh, simple and easy." - James Suckling (JamesSuckling.com, October 2020)
