Other Information

Supplier Comments:
Zhejiang province China, meaning "Crooked River" is the home of green tea and home from home for our master blender. For over 3 centuries, we've been picking teas here, using only the bud and top two leaves, the best part of the plant. We then blend these together with the finest flushes from Asian origins for a fresher, punchier green tea. Our strong relationships and in-depth knowledge of the seasons across these origins means you'll always get the highest quality, handpicked tea at just the right time.
